

Meher Baba
1894-1969

Why the name blue bus?

It comes from the life of Meher Baba, whose life and work is a great inspiration to us. In 1939, he traveled throughout India with his intimate companions in a small blue bus. Like all the great ones, his message can be summed up this way: the goal of life is to free ourselves in the love of God.

Photo © Meher Nazar Publications